25X1

1. A special Soviet Commission has been appointed to collect and destroy all evidence of the horrors for which the Red Army was responsible during the early days of its occupation in Rumania. Rumanian libraries are being searched for documentary evidence. Everything found will be destroyed.
2. A second commission is engaged in collecting evidence to show the common interests of the USSR and Rumania. This material will be used for instruction in Rumanian schools and universities.
3. The respective heads of the commissions are Mihail Roler and Barbu Lazareanu.
